I. Trainer Requirements

Requirements for General Industry trainers authorized through the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) Outreach Training Program (“Program”) are contained in the following documents:

- A. OSHA Outreach Training Program Requirements. This document covers the requirements for all OSHA-authorized Outreach trainers. (“Outreach trainers”)
- B. OSHA Outreach Training Program – General Industry Procedures. This document contains industry-specific requirements for general industry.
- C. OSHA Outreach Training Program Investigation and Review Procedures. These procedures are used by OSHA to investigate complaints or allegations of failure to comply with OSHA Outreach Training Program Requirements. These procedures ensure Program standardization, due process for resolving problems, and support Program oversight.

II. General Industry Overview

The purpose of the OSHA Outreach Training Program for General Industry is to teach general industry workers about their rights, employer responsibilities, and how to file a complaint as well as how to identify, abate, avoid, and prevent job-related hazards. OSHA authorizes safety and health professionals who complete an OSHA Outreach General Industry Trainer course to conduct occupational safety and health classes for general industry workers. After the training is completed, trainers document the training to their Authorizing Training Organization (ATO) and receive student course completion cards to distribute to the workers they have trained.

The OSHA Outreach Training Program is voluntary. Outreach training does not meet training requirements contained in any OSHA standard. Some states and local jurisdictions have enacted legislation mandating OSHA Outreach Program training to work on job sites and to fulfill their safety training goals. However, the federal government does not mandate OSHA Outreach Training Program participation. For a complete list of OSHA’s training-related requirements, see OSHA Publication #2254, Training Requirements in OSHA Standards, available through OSHA’s website (www.osha.gov.)

III. OSHA-authorized Outreach Trainer Designation

- A. Becoming an OSHA-authorized General Industry Outreach Trainer. To be eligible to become an OSHA-authorized Outreach trainer for general industry, a person must, at a minimum, meet the following prerequisites, which consist of both a training and experience component:
 - 1. Experience. To become an authorized Outreach trainer for general industry, an individual must have at least five years of general industry safety experience. A bachelor's degree (or higher) in occupational safety and health or industrial hygiene from an accredited college or university, a Certified Safety Professional (CSP), or Certified Industrial Hygienist (CIH) designation may be substituted for a total of two years of experience. Please note that 'working safely' in the industry does not meet the industry safety experience requirement.

2. Course Requirements.

a. Completion of OSHA #511 Occupational Safety and Health Standards for General Industry

- 1) To meet trainer eligibility requirements, this course must be completed not later than seven years before completing the OSHA #501 Trainer Course in Occupational Safety and Health Standards for General Industry.
- 2) The 30-hour General Industry Outreach class is not considered equivalent to the OSHA #511 Occupational Safety and Health Standards for General Industry course. The 30-hour general industry Outreach class is a hazards-based class, which is delivered by OSHA-authorized Outreach trainers. The OSHA #511 Occupational Safety and Health Standards for General Industry course covers OSHA standards and is only offered through OSHA Training Institute (OTI) Education Centers.

b. Completion of OSHA #501 Trainer Course in Occupational Safety and Health Standards for General Industry

- 1) Experience cannot be substituted for the training prerequisite component. OSHA does not issue waivers for these components.
- 2) This course includes a knowledge and performance-based test.

B. Update Requirement. To remain current on relevant OSHA matters and ensure quality training, general industry Outreach trainers are required to complete either the OSHA #503 Update for General Industry Outreach Trainers or the OSHA #501 Trainer Course in Occupational Safety and Health Standards for General Industry course every four years.

1. If a trainer's authorization has expired, the trainer will be unable to conduct Outreach training and receive student course completion cards, except as described in Section III.C.
2. Extensions to the trainer's authorization date will not be granted and they will be unable to conduct Outreach classes and receive student course completion cards, except as described in Section III.C.

C. Trainer Update Exemption for Overseas Military Service. Military members returning to the Continental United States (CONUS) from overseas assignment(s) have 90 calendar days from their return date to renew their trainer authorization. Proof of military status must be shown, including furnishing a copy of the military orders directing the service member's return to CONUS. Military reservists who serve more than 30 days on active-duty and then leave active-duty status must furnish a copy of their DD-214.

- D. Course Offerings. Outreach trainer and trainer update courses are offered through OTI Education Centers. A searchable course schedule and list of current OTI Education Centers can be found on OSHA's website. (www.osha.gov/otiec/courses/schedule)
