OSHER Lifelong Learning Institute at RIT where curious minds gather

Spring Catalog 2012

Join us for a Magical Evening!

Athenaeum/Osher 25th Anniversary Gala Dinner

When: Sunday, October 7, 2012, 5 to 9 pm

Where: R.I.T. Inn and Conference Center

Enjoy cocktail hour with a strolling magician, Bill Gormont, followed by a gourmet dinner.

Musical entertainment will be provided by the renowned R.P.O. Marimba Band.

Why do you belong at Osher?

Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at RIT is a membership-led organization that stimulates minds and forges friendships among people 50 and older who live in Greater Rochester.

Our days are filled with classes, discussions, talks, social events, and travel – but never exams. Offerings span a wide range of topics, including the arts, literature, sciences, history, and government.

Osher. There are a million-and-one reasons why curious minds gather. Discover yours!

Come for the courses. Stay for the people

That's what happens at Osher. People come for the intellectual stimulation and challenge, and discover along the way that there are friendships to be made and experiences to be shared.

We offer 40 - 50 or more courses each term, from onesession courses for those who like big ideas in small packages to courses that meet weekly over the entire 8 to 10-week session. Courses are suggested and led by members.

Spring Course Listings begin on page 7

Osher members come in all shapes and sizes, and from all walks of life. You don't need to be an RIT alum, or have an MBA or an MD after your name. You don't even have to have prior college experience. You only need to love learning...and to be 50 or older.

Beyond courses: from lectures to expeditions to dances to art exhibitions...

Discover what else is included in your annual Osher membership:

Pfaudler Enrichment Series

This speakers program is held every Thursday at noon and features Osher members as well as guest lecturers. Bring your lunch!

Summer Seminars & Intersessions

Discovery/Adventure learning experiences are capped by expeditions to complementary destinations during our Summer Seminars. Intersessions are betweensession expeditions to local museums and cultural attractions.

Social Activities

Picnics, parties, holiday celebrations...there's always something fun happening. Events and dates: page 5

Travel, Tours, Field Trips

Member-organized and led, generally within a day's travel time. We've enjoyed Hudson River Valley and Val Kill, and the Toronto Museum to see the Dead Sea Scrolls (additional fees cover actual travel expenses.)

Osher Gallery

Works of art by members are displayed on a rotating basis at The Athenaeum Building. Enjoy – or exhibit your own work.

And then there are the perks of a regular membership...

RIT Student Identification Card. A pass to RIT campus facilities, your ID card entitles you to student admission rates for campus events; borrowing privileges at the RIT Library; student discounts at the Campus Bookstore; access to campus fitness facilities at a reduced rate.

Audiology Services

State-of-the-art hearing evaluation and hearing aid service and purchase are available at significant savings through RIT's National Technical Institute for the Deaf (NTID).

Osher Library

Books are contributed and maintained by members; borrow books on an extended-time basis. No late fees!

Take Courses ... On Campus!

Each quarter the RIT College of Liberal Arts offers 100 courses to our members which enrich the range of our course offerings. The level of your participation in On Campus courses is up to you. You can ask questions, participate in class discussion, complete writing assignments and even take exams, if you want to!

The range of topics includes literature, fine arts, history, philosophy, foreign languages, anthropology, psychology, women & gender studies, writing and more.

Prerequisites for Osher member participation in On Campus courses include:

- Regular Osher membership for at least one year
- An RIT identification card
- A valid RIT parking sticker

One month prior to the start of each RIT quarter, our staff prepares a compendium of On Campus courses, the RIT Course Catalog for Osher Members, which includes course title, instructor, description, time, building, and room number. A copy of this catalog is emailed to each member and can also be found on our website, http://osher.rit.edu, and in our library. A shuttle bus is available from the Racquet Club parking lot to the campus. Additional information is available in the Osher Members Benefits Guide and the On Campus course registration form is available in the Osher office.

REGISTRATION OPENS 3/19 at 10 am

Spring 2012 Course Schedule

In this five-week course Gisela will present the lives and paintings of the following 19th century artists: Edouard Manet, Edgar Degas, Toulouse Lautrec, Vincent Van Gogh, and Paul Gauguin. Lecture

Gisela Balents has been an active member of Osher and has taught various art history courses in the past.

9:30 - 11:00 am Monday: 5 Sessions: April 2 – April 30

The Great Ideas of Philosophy and Psychology ..... S2

This course is intended to introduce students to the main currents and issues in philosophical and psychological thought. Our discussions will be supplemented with DVD lectures from prominent university professors. Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Howard Maslich is a former psychology professor and business owner with a great interest in human behavior. He has taught many classes at Osher in philosophy, psychology, and theology.

Monday: 9:30 – 11:00 am

10 Sessions: April 2 – June 11, except 4/23 and 5/28

Mt. Hope is considered one of the most beautiful and historically important cemeteries in the United States. We will learn about - and meet, so to speak - many of its famous, not-so-famous, and infamous permanent residents. This is a multi-disciplinary and recently updated course emphasizing history, geology, art, architecture, the general ecology of this magnificent landscape, and perhaps a ghost story or two. There will be two springtime field trips and three classroom sessions. Discussion, Field Study/Trip, Lecture, Reading

Bill McLane retired in early 2008 after working as a journalist, Marine Corps officer, college teacher, and educational psychologist. He is a member of Friends of Mt. Hope Cemetery and has logged over 2,000 hours exploring Mt. Hope over the past 15 years or so, always accompanied by his inquisitive canine companions, Diva and Maddie.

Monday: 9:30 - 11:00 am

May 7 – June 11, except 5/28 5 Sessions:

This course is a continuation of "Spanish For Beginners" stressing listening, speaking, reading, writing, and culture. Everyone is encouraged to participate in an interactive class format using audio and visual materials. This class is intended for those with some Spanish background. (Text: Dicho y Hecho by Potowski, Sobral, Dawson, 8TH EDITION PLEASE, ISBN # 0471761079; as well as the Activities Manual 8TH EDITION (red cover) ISBN # 0471761060. Prices range from $4-$50 on Amazon.) Class limit 25 Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture, Peer Group Seminar, Reading, Writing

Roslyn Rubin is a lifelong language lover who has taught grade six through advanced level college courses and adult continuing education. Please come and share the passion and rich diversity and culture of the Spanish language.

9:30 – 11:00 am Monday:

10 Sessions: April 2 – June 11, except 5/28

There are many signs that this could be a very interesting time period: Campaign Iran, budget problems, Midtown, MCC - and those are just a few. There should be much to discuss. Discussion

Con Sullivan has an insatiable interest in the way people view today's world and its various problems.

Monday: 9:30 – 11:00 am

10 Sessions: April 2 – June 11, except 5/28

This course meets twice during the spring term to discuss books selected at the September 19 class meeting. The spring books and dates are: Freedom by Jonathan Franzen on April 9th, and The View from Lazy Point by Carl Safina on May 14th. New class members are always welcome. (Text: Freedom by Jonathan Franzen, and The View from Lazy Point by Carl Safina)

Discussion, Peer Group Seminar, Reading

Janice Shapiro, an ardent reader, is looking forward to reading both books and discussing the same. Charmaine Babineau relishes contemporary fiction, classic literature, and non-fiction.

Monday: 11:15 am - 12:45 pm April 9 & May 14 2 Sessions:

Monday One-Session Courses

One-Session Courses are a popular addition to the Monday schedule at Osher. These one-time courses cover a wide variety of subjects. Shown below are two examples of One-Session Courses currently scheduled for the spring term. Courses are added all the time, so be sure to check the screen in the lounge for the most up-to-date listing.

April 9

The iPad 2 – Finding Fun in Function Presented by Betty and Andy Ludwick

Intro to iPad use, based on our experience in the Osher classroom, at home, and while traveling. From alarm clocks to Zite, and from game apps to grandkids' apps, a look at some of the possibilities.

Improving Your Photography: Photo Critiques of Images That You Provide

Presented by Steve Levinson

Share five images and discuss how they could be improved. Images should explore the theme of "Light." Participants will bring up to five JPEG files (thumb drive, CD). We can also handle prints. Knowledge of imaging software (Elements, Lightroom, etc.) is helpful but not required. We will discuss as many images as we can, allowing all to participate. Our critiques will be based on the Santa Fe School of Photography and Maine Media workshops. All critiques will be POSITIVE with suggestions on how you can make your images even better.

Express Yourself in Writing..... S7

Use your imagination to write short stories on subjects suggested by the course leader, and enjoy the opportunity to write stories you have mentally composed over the years. To assist in improving your skills, a gentle and positive critique of your writing will be included in the class. Outside writing is expected. Discussion, Writing

Pat Edelman is an avid reader and writer, and enjoys encouraging others to write. Her work as a librarian has given her an appreciation of books and of the talent required to write them.

Monday: 1:30 – 3:30 pm

10 Sessions: April 2 – June 11, except 5/28

The Magic of Musicals: Broadway and Cinema...... S8

In this course we will view and discuss complete movie musicals that have won an Academy Award and movie versions of Broadway musicals that have won an Antoinette Perry Award (Tony). Other stage and screen musicals will be represented by scenes from DVDs and tracks from CDs. Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Herb Levin has an MS in Education and musicals are his passion! He has also led religion and economics courses.

Monday: 1:30 – 3:30 pm

After an introduction to the Holocaust from Barbara Appelbaum, former director of the Center for Holocaust Awareness and Information, we will spend two weeks viewing and discussing each of five films, all of which have either been nominated for or have won the Best Film Academy Award. The Garden of the Finzi-Continis (1970) explores the prelude to the Holocaust in Italy; Diary of Anne Frank (1959), Schindler's List (1993), and The Pianist (2002) explore different aspects of the Holocaust; finally, Judgment at Nuremberg (1961) is a searing depiction of the war crimes trials which followed the Holocaust. Audio/Visual, Lecture

Victor Poleshuck and Bob Vukosic have a love of film, especially those which tell important stories and illuminate those stories from a specific perspective.

Monday: 1:30 – 3:30 pm

10 Sessions: April 2 – June 11, except 5/28

Tuesday 2012

We will investigate the fascinating story of the origins of Japanese civilization from its earliest settlements to its opening to the West. This course chronicles the religion, culture, and arts of the Japanese people along with the commanding rule of the shoguns and the samurai warrior armies. Audio/Visual, Lecture

Marie Levin had a 30-year career in marketing management and was a vice president and chief operating officer for major clinical laboratories. She is an avid history buff.

Tuesday: 9:30 – 11:00 am 5 Sessions: April 3 – May 1

This course will expose portions of the war not usually discussed. The Western front was not the totality of that war. This course will look at many aspects of the war and its broad impact.

Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Jim Martin has always been interested in history and historical events. He majored in Latin American history in college.

Tuesday: 9:30 – 11:00 am 5 Sessions: May 8 – June 5

Surveys show that U.S. students do not have geographic knowledge or skills on par with their peers in other countries. We will examine why this is a serious problem by discussing issues (global economics, population growth, conflicts, etc.) that must be analyzed from a geographic perspective. Class members will be encouraged to try out activities created by the course leader. Audio/Visual, Lecture

Tim McDonnell has been a member of Osher at RIT since 2005, and he has led many courses on a variety of topics ranging from plate tectonics to the history of American photography. Tim is also the coordinator of the New York Geographic Alliance.

Tuesday: 9:30 – 11:00 am 5 Sessions: May 8 – June 5

This course will cover the history of jazz starting with the mid-1930's using the Ken Burns PBS Jazz films. The first part of each class will be spent watching the films and the second part discussing them and listening to jazz music. Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Lewis Neisner is a retired college marketing professor. He has had a lifelong interest in jazz and has taught numerous courses on it and the music and lyrics of the American Songbook.

Tuesday: 9:30 – 11:00 am 10 Sessions: April 3 – June 5

An introduction to Spanish including listening, speaking, reading, writing, culture. Using audio and visual materials, everyone is encouraged to participate in an interactive class format. Tuesday: 9:30 – 11:00 am 10 Sessions: April 3 – June 5

The attack on voting rights and unions, economic inequality, gerrymandering, the expanding impact of money on elections, and the abuse of congressional rules are among the threats to democracy that will be discussed. Both political parties will be subject to our abuse. Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Bob Getz returns from the football field to the contact sport of politics. He is an emeritus professor of political science at the College at Brockport.

Tuesday: 11:15 am – 12:45 pm 10 Sessions: April 3 – June 5

In this course we will discuss the weekly New Yorker magazine. These discussions will center on articles selected by the class members. Each member will read as much of the magazine as he/she wishes ahead of time and come prepared with their thoughts and recommendations for which articles they wish to discuss. The first session will review the March 26, 2012, issue to allow both online and hardcopy recipients time to read the magazine. (Subscription to The New Yorker, either the paper or electronic version.)

Class limit 16 Discussion, Reading

Steve Levinson focuses his time being a partner in a photographic gallery and board volunteer work. Joan Dupont enjoys the additional perspectives that the New Yorker brings.

This course will include presentations and discussions about aspects of the Holocaust, with a focus on accounts from individual people associated with the horrors of the tragedy. We will talk about going through the event in its various stages, contemplate incredible feats of survival, and analyze the causes of the Holocaust. We will also deliberate on subjects such as race issues and human nature. Books, movies, and other exhibits will be used to scrutinize the overall matter. Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Avri Michaeli was born in Budapest and lived in Hungary for the first 21 years of his life, including the years of Nazi control during WWII. He then moved to Israel, where he lived in kibbutzim and Tel Aviv. In 1964, he came to the United States and has lived here in Rochester ever since.

Tuesday: 11:15 am – 12:45 pm 10 Sessions: April 3 – June 5

The centennial of Hyam Plutzik and his poetry is being celebrated this academic year. Plutzik was Dean Professor of Rhetoric and Poetry at the University of Rochester and creator of the U of R Reading Series now named in his honor. A documentary film will be shown, followed by readings and discussion of many of Plutzik's poems. Audio/Visual, Discussion

Sidney Shapiro has led courses on poets and their poetry as well as courses on how scientists make discoveries. He learns much from the insights of course participants.

Tuesday: 11:15 am – 12:45 pm 5 Sessions: April 3 – May 1

War Poems.....

Many poets have fought in wars and written poems about their experiences. Both Hyam Plutzik and Anthony Hecht were strongly affected by their service in World War II and a number of their poems reflect this. Readings and discussion of their war poems will be supplemented by other war poems. Discussion, Lecture, Reading

Sidney Shapiro has led courses on poets and their poetry as well as courses on how scientists make discoveries. He learns much from the insights of course participants.

Tuesday: 11:15 am – 12:45 pm 5 Sessions: May 8 – June 5

Have you ever said to yourself: "I've been thinking about...", "I've been meaning to...", "How do I start...?", "My kids don't care..."? This may all be about writing your memoirs. Many have found this non-critical class valuable as the perfect vehicle for springing into action on a most rewarding project. (Optional Text: The Heart and Craft of Lifestory Writing: How to Transform Memories into Meaningful Stories, by Lippincott, S. M.) Reading, Writing

Carol Samuel is beginning her 10th year as course leader of the Memoirs class. A retired obstetrical nurse, she enthusiastically encourages participants to begin or continue writing their life stories.

Wednesday: 9:30 – 11:00 am 10 Sessions: April 4 – June 6

In this course we will study the buying and selling of stocks, bonds, and mutual funds, and exchange traded funds using various sources of information. Our ideas may or may not be good ones and any information that will be presented should be taken with humility and skepticism. Discussion, Lecture

Phil Weisberg is an experienced Osher course leader and is a Certified Financial Planner and registered investment advisor who is not seeking or accepting any new clients.

Wednesday: 9:30 – 11:00 am 10 Sessions: April 4 – June 6

Contemporary Events ...... S27

If the news of the day interests you, or leaves you with questions or concerns, join with others to explore issues affecting our lives. While the leader will act as facilitator, members will suggest the day's topics and should bring to class supporting information from any form of media. Discussion

After June Clase dropped out of college, she explored beachcombing before returning to finish college. As a retired college professor, she tries to be an informed citizen.

Wednesday: 1:30 – 3:00 pm 10 Sessions: April 4 – June 6

In this course we will read and discuss some essays and lectures by Ralph Waldo Emerson, including Self-Reliance, The American Scholar, and Nature. Emerson was the leader of the American transcendentalist movement of the mid-19th century. He combined an advocacy of an absolute independence of the individual and his thoughts with a reverence for nature and a universal "over-soul." We'll cast some light on his work using his biography and the historical context of his life. (Text: Essays and Poems, R.W. Emerson, ISBN 978-1-59308-076-1. Introduction and notes by Peter Norberg, Barnes and Noble Classics c. 2004, $6.95) Discussion, Reading

Tom Low is not a professional philosopher, pedagogue or (he hopes) pedant. His professional training was in government, but he has led a life of the mind for 58 years in spite of that.

Wednesday: 1:30 – 3:00 pm 10 Sessions: April 4 – June 6

Current Events in Science and Technology...$32

Similar to the popular Contemporary Events courses and following a similar format, this course will focus on events and trends in science and technology. Links to selected articles will be provided by email. An RIT library account is strongly recommended. Discussion

Julian Thomas started working with computers as an undergraduate and hasn't stopped since.

John O'Sullivan is a retired neurologist with an interest in science.

Wednesday: 1:30 – 3:00 pm 10 Sessions: April 4 – June 6

Thursday 2012

Spring 2012 Course Schedule

Carrying on the tradition of longtime group leader Joan Hart, the class will view and then discuss one or two current movies each week. Members will see the movies independently and personally rate them. Everyone is encouraged to participate and, with a variety of opinions, lively discussion is guaranteed! Class limit 30Audio/Visual, Discussion

Burt Freedman is a retired pharmacist. His interests include theater, reading, and spending time with his grandchildren. Bea Slizewski is a retired public relations professional with a great love for reading and movies.

Thursday: 9:30 – 11:30 am 10 Sessions: April 5 – June 7

Thursday: 9:30 – 11:30 am 10 Sessions: April 5 – June 7

A few months after the death of her husband Jacqueline Kennedy consented to taped interviews with Arthur Schlesinger Jr. with an agreement that they would not be released until fifty years after her husband's death. This course will use these audio recordings to learn more about her life with JFK and her own opinions on people and events. They are also a revealing portrait of her as well. We will also discuss her life prior to their marriage and after the president's death. Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Kate Zava has always had an interest in politics and when in high school she worked for the John Kennedy election campaign as a young Democrat. The tapes and the book have made Kate see Jacquline Kennedy in a new light.

Thursday: 9:30 – 11:30 am 10 Sessions: April 5 – June 7

This is the final term of a three-term course based on the program of the same name from The Great Courses. It will span the subject of physical geology. Two half-hour DVD lectures per class by Prof. Michael Wysession of Washington University will be supplemented by the course leader. (Optional Text: transcripts [available at discount through course leader and highly suggested] and Earth: An Introduction to Physical Geology, 9th Ed., by Tarbuck & Lutgens.) Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Joe Charles, trained in physics, math, modern optics and electrical engineering, has had a long interest in geology but only recently started studying it. He has knowledge and enthusiasm based on two and a half years of self-study.

Thursday: 1:30 – 3:30 pm 10 Sessions: April 5 – June 7

PowerPoint Tips and Tricks..... $38

Bollywood movies are known for their length and colorful song-and-dance numbers. In this course, we will be watching and discussing different genres and eras of Bollywood and other regional Indian movies subtitled in English. The movies are chosen for such distinctions as "classic," Oscarnominated, groundbreaking, or as part of a prominent actor's career development. Oh, yes – and just for entertainment! (Traditionally, we have met for lunch at an Indian restaurant to add to the cultural experience; this is optional and the cost ranges approximately from under $10 to $15.) Audio/Visual, Discussion

Nita Genova became interested in Bollywood movies a few years ago and finds them endlessly fascinating. To supplement her enjoyment of the movies, Nita continues to do extensive reading on the Bollywood/Indian movie industries.

Friday: 9:30 – 11:30 am 10 Sessions: April 6 – June 8

This co-ed class examines sports from our youth. Also, we review contemporary sports' issues. Such a difference! An optional field trip will be included. "He"s and "She"s welcome. Discussion, Field Study/Trip, Peer Group Seminar

Bob Hilliard is a retired educator. "If you can't play a sport... be one."

Friday: 9:30 – 11:30 am 10 Sessions: April 6 – June 8

The Ancient Civilizations of Mesoamerica ........... $43

This broad, foundational, visually and musically rich course will examine the varied cultures of ancient Mesoamerica over three millennia including the Olmec, Teotihuacano, Toltec, Zapotec, Maya, and Aztec/Mexica societies. Major topics include the rise of Mesoamerican civilizations, the development of the Mesoamerican cultural tradition, the growth of cities, arts, architecture, political organization, religion, conflict, and the archaeological study of this heritage. (Recommended text: Coe, Michael D., and Koontz, Rex (2008). Mexico: From the Olmecs to the Aztecs (Sixth Edition), ISBN #0500287554. London: Thames & Hudson. Paperback, new, $13.37 Optional Text: Coe, Michael D. (2011). The Maya. London: Thames & Hudson. Paperback, new, $17.51)

Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture, Reading, Other: Opportunity for student presentations (brief and optional)

Bill McLane retired in 2008 after a career as a Marine Corps officer, journalist, college teacher, and educational psychologist. He has an avid interest in Mesoamerica and in the past 25 years has participated in archaeological research at such sites as Teotihuacan, Chichen Itza, and Tulum. He recently led an Osher course on the Aztec/Mexica Empire.

Friday: 9:30 – 11:30 am 10 Sessions: April 6 – June 8

Participants in this course will find out what gives Ernst Lubitsch's romantic comedies the famed "Lubitsch Touch" by studying some of his great films, such as Trouble in Paradise; Ninotchka; The Shop Around the Corner, To Be or Not to Be; and Heaven Can Wait. Class will include background, film clips, and discussion. Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Mary Ann Satter has a master's degree in English from the University of Rochester and is a recently retired English teacher. She has studied and taught film for almost five decades.

Friday: 9:30 – 11:30 am 10 Sessions: April 6 – June 8

Osher Arts & Lectures Presents

Parvatha Chidambaram and the Bharata School of Indian Dance and Music

Friday, May 18, 2 – 4 pm Robert F. Panara NTID Performing Arts Center

Come join us for a lecture and performance of classical Bharatanatyam and Carnatic music and dance. Parvatha Chidambaram is the founder and artistic director of Bharata School of Indian Dance and Music in Rochester. Her classes focus on providing rigorous training that enhances appreciation for Indian dance, music, and India's rich culture. Parvatha is an ardent disciple of the world-renowned dancer and research scholar Dr. Padma Subrahmanyam.

Look for details for sign-ups to follow.

Beyond learning... is leading

Courses at OSHER are led by members. Some have extensive experience in the topic they like to lead and others are just curious enough about something that they go out and research it so they can lead a course. Contact us – we'll be happy to tell you more about leading at Osher.

"I love leading courses here. It's like I died and went to heaven. When you're teaching here at Osher, you're teaching people who are really hungry to learn."

Visit our web site! http://osher.rit.edu

Because you've already given up hula hoops, bikinis, and trans fats, you shouldn't have to give up everything fun...

There are a million-and-one reasons why you belong where curious minds gather. Discover your place at Osher.

"I am enjoying learning about more varied subjects since I joined Osher. New ideas, new friends, new experiences ... "

Which membership suits your needs?

We have varying levels of membership to fit members' individual circumstances. You can begin your membership at the start of any of our three terms: Fall (September), Winter (January) and Spring/Summer (April).

Regular Membership

A Regular Membership entitles you to participate in all activities, and offers the opportunity to join the RIT community. Enjoy unlimited courses at Osher, participation in social activities, the Pfaudler Enrichment Series, travel and tour programs, Summer Seminar and Intersession programs, and an RIT Student ID card. Beginning in your second year, you are entitled to "listen in" on selected RIT liberal arts courses. A number of partial scholarships are available. Scholarships are made possible through a grant from the Bernard Osher Foundation. Please contact the Program Director for more information.

The annual fee is $275 per person.

Are you a Snowbird? "Gift" your winter term to a friend.

Supporting Membership

Unable to participate in courses but interested in our other activities? Supporting Membership is for you. Participate in all social events, Pfaudler Enrichment Series, Summer Seminar and Intersession programs and travel and tour programs. You may also invite a guest to one of these activities. The annual fee is $130.

Trial Membership

Available to first-time members only, Trial Membership offers another way to "try out Osher." Enjoy all the privileges of Regular Membership for one term (Fall, Winter, or Spring/Summer) excluding the RIT Student ID card and audiology services. The fee is $150 per person. You may convert your Trial Membership into Regular Membership by paying an additional $125 at the end of your trial term, thereby adding the subsequent two terms.

Benefits
Membership	Fee	Unlimited Courses	Pfaudler Series	Social Events	Travel & Tours	Summer Seminar & Intersession	Student ID Card	Audio- ology Services
Regular (full year)	$275
Supporting (full year)	$130
Trial (one term)	$150

To apply. There are only two criteria for membership in Osher: you must be 50 or older, and have an interest in lifelong learning. You'll find our membership application and membership profile on the next two pages. Fill them out and return them to us by mail or by fax. Questions? Call us at 585-292-8989 or email us at osher.info@rit.edu.

OSHER Lifelong Learning Institute at RIT reserves the right to cancel courses because of low registration, last-minute unavailability of course leaders, or other unavoidable circumstances. Members will be notified immediately of such cancellations so they may select an alternative. Written confirmation will not be sent. You may consider yourself registered in your selected course(s) unless you are notified otherwise. We invite our members to register for as many classes as they wish, but for planning purposes, we ask you to register only for the classes you intend to make a consistent good-faith effort to attend.

Note: Some courses require the purchase of books or materials. Registration forms processed starting March 19, 2012.
